Jessica Moore

Vice President,
Investor Relations

Jessica Moore (Jess) was appointed to Vice President, Investor Relations in November, 2021. In this role, Jess is responsible for strategically positioning and enhancing the reputation of Johnson & Johnson with key stakeholders, building and maintaining relationships with the investor community, leading the quarterly earnings report with analysts and managing critical shareholder events.

Most recently, Jess served as the Vice President, Finance, Janssen EMEA where she provided finance leadership for the EMEA region of the Janssen Pharmaceuticals organization, overseeing the delivery and analysis of financial performance, risk and opportunity assessments and maintenance of a strong compliant environment.

Prior to joining Johnson & Johnson, Jess spent 18 years at Baxter International where she gained diverse experience across the organization within the U.S., Belgium and Switzerland. Most recently, as the EMEA Finance Vice President for Baxter International, Jess successfully focused on returning the region to growth and led a transformational project to standardize and centralize financial processes across commercial and manufacturing entities. Jess joined Baxter in 2002 as a member of Baxter's Financial Development Program. She held several Finance positions of increasing responsibility in Corporate, Sales Operations, developed and emerging markets and lead the Gambro integration and Baxalta separation for EMEA.

Jess holds a bachelor's degree in Finance and Accounting from Miami (of Ohio) University and an MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.
